John Clemens has purchased a lot of land on the corner of Broadway and 25th, where he has been teaching, and where she has been teaching, to commence a school in district No. 10.

Some people of East Broadway are going to have a Christmas tree with recitations and a Santa Claus at Broadway's Ward long after a "mule horse" has been sold. He slipped on the ice and was killed, and was so badly hurt that he had to be killed.

Timely Advice about Buying.

Paid for by W. A. Frothingham & Sons, South Paris.

It seems strange to us why many people will buy "unsensational nonsense" for Christmas, and figuratively squandering the rest of the year's earnings. We were allowed to advise, we would say in the words of the teacher, "that it is not good to do so." We would advise that you should be naturally doing otherwise, that you buy boots, shoes and rubbers, and dry clothes the best and protect your health; and that you pass by the unsensational hedge-podge shown in the knick-knack shops and come to us where you will find good solid overcoats—long legs and short ones—overcoats, hats, wool boots, lumberman's boots, calf-skin boots, eye, calf-skin boots, and various.

I'll tell you, every article sold to be as represented and will give you value for your money as anyone in our line of goods, no matter who you go.
 It is slippers that you are looking for, we have them in many kinds and have stylish shoes for those who want them, good as you can get, some picked-toed ones as well as razor boots.
 If you want cheap shoes, we have them, not only cheap in price, but cheap in quality. They will be as represented; may be that they won't last as long and they surely won't drop to pieces before you get home. We guarantee and would like to mention them to you.
 I almost forgot to mention wolf and buffalo robes, harnesses and collars. We sell them as some true trunks, valises, traveling bags, and our "extra" line. We have you a sea-serpent for a neck-chain, but our whip is the king of the kind.

are hundreds of other things we'd like to speak about, but space is so limited. The advertiser costs money, sometimes more money than we think it's worth. At this instance we feel moved to bear the expense and warn you against the prevailing notion and besetting sin of nonsensical nonsense about saving time in making purchases. WE WOULDN'T DO IT. BUT WE'LL WEAR.
